Buyer checklist

Contact the seller

Read the seller's description carefully and contact the seller with questions before you make an offer or place a bid. Look for the "Ask seller a question" link at the top of the listing.

Make sure it fits

Double-check the seller's description to make sure this part fits your vehicle. We also recommend contacting the seller to confirm that this item is compatible with your vehicle.

Review the seller's feedback and DSR scores

The seller's feedback rating is a valuable tool to learn about the positives and negatives of a seller's transactional history. When buying an item, look for a seller with positive feedback and take the time to read comments from other buyers to get a sense of the seller's reliability.

Estimate shipping or transportation costs

Please keep in mind that parts and accessories tend to be bulkier or heavier than other eBay items and may cost more to ship. If the seller isn't local, review or calculate how much it will cost to ship or pick up the item in Shipping.

Review eBay's buyer protection policy
